

Progress Document – Year 1 – Mary Seacole
Previous Years End of Expectations		End of year Expectations to be met in this topic
Chronology-Long arc of development-significant events	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I am developing an understanding of things were different in the past and know things happened before I was born. • I can fit people/events (3) onto a chronological framework • I can use simple language that relates to the passing of time. 	Chronology-Long arc of development-significant events	Place events and artefacts in order on a time line. Use dates where appropriate
Life achievements of the society/significant people	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I can identify some similarities/differences between ways of life at different times. E.g. changes in telephones • I can talk about how the lives of my parents/grandparents were different than today. • I know that events of the past have impacted celebrations and events today e.g. Christmas. 	Life achievements of the society/significant people	Describe significant people from the past. Show an understanding of the concept of nation and a nation's history.
Interpretations of the past- the process of change- the impact on our society	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I know that some things are from the past and were used before I was born e.g. the telephone, quill and old bicycle. • I can ask simple questions about artefacts • I am beginning to identify ways in which the past is represented through artefacts, photographs and stories. 	Interpretations of the past- the process of change- the impact on our society	Identify some of the ways the past has been represented. Recount changes that have occurred in their own lives.
Communication	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I am able to answer 'how' and 'why' questions 	Communication	Ask questions such as: What was it like for people? What happened? How long ago? Observe or handle evidence to ask questions and find answers to questions about the past. Use words and phrases such as: a long time ago, recently, when my parents/carers were children, years, decades and centuries to describe the passing of time.
National Curriculum Links		Key Vocabulary
Significant historical events, people and places in their own locality The lives of significant individuals in the past who have contributed to national and international achievements. Some should be used to compare aspects of life in different periods.		Victoria Crimean War Injured Soldiers Medicine Cleanliness heroine
Key Knowledge		Enhancements and links with other subjects
Mary Seacole was born in Jamaica , 1805 Mary Seacole nursed soldiers in the Crimean War. Mary Seacole opened a "British Hotel" near to the battlefields. It was a place where soldiers could rest and buy hot food, drinks and equipment. Mary Seacole received a number of medals for her bravery from governments in different countries. Mary Seacole died in 1881.		Trip to Bury Transport Museum.
Next years End of year expectations

Chronology-Long arc of development- significant events	Describe historical events. Use dates where appropriate Place events and artefacts in order on a timeline.
Life achievements of the society/significant people	Show an understanding of concepts such as civilisation, monarchy, parliament, democracy and war and peace. Describe significant people from the past.
Interpretations of the past- the process of change- the impact on our society	Use artefacts, pictures, stories, online sources and databases to find out about the past. Identify some of the ways the past has been represented. Recognise that there are reasons why people in the past acted as they did. Recount changes that have occurred in their own lives.
Communication	Ask questions such as: What was it like for people? What happened? How long ago? Observe or handle evidence to ask questions and find answers to questions about the past.